

SUMMER'S END

September 12, 2008

Everyone's cherishing the last days of warm weather by having fun outside—or at least inside with an outside theme. Hudson Lounge's End of Summer party had a Caribbean feel with steel drums and sangria margarita fusion cocktails. PR mastermind Victoria Michaels (clients like the Four Seasons, Maxim, and the Washington Ballet) teamed up with Hudson, Felix, and Spy Lounge owner Alan Popovsky to hold the event that lasted 'til midnight.

Jim Tierney, who does property development sales for Choice Hotels, school teacher Kristen Emory, and real estate developer Doug Dixon tried the mild air outside.

Mie n Yu's Mike Cherner, guest Alicia Lynn, and realtor and blogger Chandler Ramelli sample appetizers from Exec Chef Ryan Arnold. Oops, by the time we snapped, the food was gone.