Hudson Opens in DC's West End

Alan Popovsky's Hudson has opened as a retro-chic (add your own definition) breakfast, lunch and dinner restaurant that also serves as a night club ... and yes, it's open for brunch on the weekends. The only thing left is to fill in the hours between 2 and 7 a.m. and just make it an all night retro-chic diner. Last night we saw the place full of snappy-chic people eating and drinking free food and wine. Now that the registers are open for business, Alan is donating a portion of his first month's proceeds to Susie Kay's Hoop Dreams Scholarship Fund. Checking out the coolness of it all on opening night with Alan and Susie was the always chic Lynne Breaux (on the right), president of the Restaurant Association Metropolitan Washington.

Hudson is located at 2030 M Street NW and is open for breakfast, lunch, dinner and Saturday and Sunday brunch Monday-Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 2 a.m.; Saturday 10:30 a.m. to 3 a.m. and Sunday 10:30 a.m. to midnight.
